HE WAS A NAVAL DESERTER.

His Wife Told on Him When He Got Gay with Another Woman

About three years ago, a member of the marine guard by the name of Matthews, on the prison ship South-try, skipped the ship and for many months the civil and naval authorities continued a search for the missing man but could get nothing on his movements from the time he was last seen on the ship and it was supposed that he was dead.

However, it developed that the man was very much alive.

After making good his escape he landed in Marathon, a small town in Cortland county, New York state, where he met a rich woman and was later married.

He was soon in charge and amassing a fine farm of nearly sixty acres, one of the best in the county, in fact everything was coming his way until another woman figured in the game and Matthews got in trouble.

The wife accused him of being untrue and became extremely jealous. She appealed to him to forget the other woman but he heeded not her wish. She finally put a damper on the extra love affairs of her husband and notified the police that he was a deserter from the navy.

This angered Matthews and, to avoid the notoriety and block the police from getting reward money, appeared at the receiving ship Hancock at the New York navy yard, where a court martial board sent him back to the naval prison for one year.

ABANDON MORNING WALKS.

Social Whirl Takes Them From the Paths of the Simple Life.

The early morning ladies' walking club has called it off and retired to simple life once more.

Regardless of a few small callous spots on the soles of their feet and the extra work put in on the mending of stockings, they report much pleasure and delight in the early cross country hikes.

They were, however, obliged to disband owing to the opening of the social season following Lent, and as they found it too strenuous to keep up this pace and hold their end in the social line.

STRONG REPERTOIRE.

One of Most Popular Stock Companies on Road in New England.

Several high class specialties will be given between the acts and 3,000 feet of the latest pictures.

The opening plays today are "The Millionaire Cowboy" in the afternoon and in the evening "His Sister's Sin," a new original American comedy dealing with New England, a story in which tender sentiment, intensely dramatic situations and humor are harmoniously blended.

Ladies' tickets will be issued for tonight only.

J. S. Whitaker Supt.

Mrs. Rollin Stevens has returned home from an extended visit with relatives in Somerville, Mass.

A meeting of the Kittery Teachers' Association was held on Friday afternoon.

The attendance at the morning service of the Second Christian church on Sunday was unusually large and appreciative. The floral decorations were very elaborate, and speaks well for the decorative committee, who had that part of the Easter exercises in hand. The committee was composed of the following members: Mrs. Carrie Lane's class, Mrs. Stephen H. Boulter, Miss Lou Nelson, Miss Marie Brown and Mervin G. Ford. The usual custom of sending the cut flowers to the sick and shut-ins was observed at the close of the evening service and many were made glad in that way which is a very pretty custom.

The executive committee of the county Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet with the local society on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the Second Methodist church to arrange for the coming county convention at Berwick. Basket lunch at noon.

Mr. Charles Pinkham is soon to move his family from his home on Love lane out of town.

The Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Second Christian church will meet on Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Anna W. Hobbs of Westworth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dargin of the Intervene are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son.

Mr. Samuel Keene still remains very ill at his home on Government street. Mrs. J. Wilson Hobbs, who has been for the past week confined to her home on Westworth street by illness, is slowly recovering.

On Tuesday evening in both of the local churches the regular weekly prayer meetings are to be held.

Mrs. Edwin A. Duncan is reported to be ill at her home on Williams avenue, to the sorrow of her many friends. Hundreds of Easter post-cards have passed through the mails at the local postoffice during the past few days entirely eclipsing all previous records for the same thing.

At the Second Methodist church Easter Sunday morning service Miss Hattie M. Langton sang two solos and at the five o'clock vespers service Mrs. Charles Randolph was the violinist and was assisted by a chorus choir. The programme has already appeared in the Herald, of Saturday last.

Constitution lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold its regular meeting tomorrow evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Prescott of Jones avenue are spending the Easter days in Boston, Mass., and while there they expect to attend grand opera.

Mrs. Frank E. Donnell of Central street is again confined to her home by illness.

It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Langton and Mr. and Mrs. Paschel Langton, who have been passing the winter in Florida, will arrive home in town today.

Daniel A. Stevens of York village, whose funeral took place on Friday last, was a member of E. G. Parker Post, Grand Army of the Republic, of Kittery. A delegation consisting of Post Commander E. A. Duncan, Post Commander J. H. Scott, G. W. Marden and M. A. Safford attended the funeral in behalf of this post. Comrade Stevens was a member of the York Veterans' Association, which was also present, also Aspinquid lodge F. and A. Masons. Comrade Stevens was born in Norway, Me., July 28, 1845.

He served in a Massachusetts regiment until the close of the Civil war. He came to York from Massachusetts in 1877. He was a true comrade, a good citizen and a sincere and devoted friend to every worthy enterprise which commands the aid of every loyal citizen and true Christian. His townsmen will greatly miss him in all laudable enterprises.

The dedication of the Congregational meetinghouse at Kittery Point will take place on Wednesday evening, April 14, at 7.30. All former pastors have been invited, also all local pastors and their people. Some old gifts of Whipple and Peppervill will be on exhibition, which include an old burial cloth which was used in the time of Pastor Newmarch. The committee consists of C. R. Duncan and W. H. # HIGH SCHOOL WINS FIRST

SCHOOL AT BASE BALL AT THE PLAINS.

The High school baseball team won their first game of the season on Saturday afternoon when they defeated the York high school team at the Plains. The weather was not ideal for baseball but the game other than from a weather standpoint, was good. Hodgdon and Badger were both used in the box and they were very effective, the York boys being unable to find them for but five hits. Weir was in the box for the visitors and with good support he would have pitched a good game, but the team had had breaks and eight errors were made, Martin being the worst offender.

The High school team showed far better form than was expected and the indications are that a very good team will be turned out before the end of the season.

WITH THE THEATRICAL FOLK

"The Travelling Salesman" at Park Theatre.

For the first time in the history of the stage, a play has been written dealing with that most interesting type of American, namely, the travelling salesman. A marked feature of James Forbes' latest comedy success, "The Travelling Salesman," which will inaugurate its season at the Park theatre, Boston, with a Patriots' day matinee, Monday, April 19, with regular matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays, is the large number of laughable, slang expressions, entirely new to those who find much to interest them in the works of the celebrated slang authors of the day. Mr. Forbes as a creator of risible expressions sprang into prominence by reason of "The Chorus Lady," and has more than duplicated his first success with "The Travelling Salesman." The production comes to the Park theatre, Boston, direct from the Gaiety theatre, New York, where it ran for 300 nights.

May Visit Portsmouth.

Theron D. Perkins has received so many requests for dates for his international Musical Festival from all parts of the country since it became known that he was going to give a performance in aid of the new Boston college building fund, on Patriots' day, at Mechanics hall, that he has arranged to take the organization on a tour of the New England states after the Boston engagement. Requests for dates have come from as far away places as Los Angeles, Houston, Texas, Tacoma, and Winnipeg.

The members of the legislature arrived home on Saturday tired but happy that the session was over with.

The driver of the water wagon fears that the approach of warm weather will cause several falls from the temperance vehicle.

A north end assault case was the only business scheduled for police court this morning and that was settled out of court.

There were two drunks and ten lodgers at the police station on Saturday night. The lodgers are still coming in large numbers.

The baseball field on the south play grounds will not be in condition for some time as yet. The work will be started as soon as possible.

Three portraits have been placed in the hall of the new Ellis' home on Pleasant street. One, at the end of the hall, is of the late True W. Priest, who was the first excited ruler of Portsmouth lodge, and the others on the right are of the late S. Plummer Jones and the late Edward D. Coffin.

line of the railroad have not been removed, the company's men engaged in this work not having yet got around to this locality. A petition for establishment of American Express service in charge of Station Master George E. Smart of Kittery navy yard depot is being circulated, it being a long felt want.

The houses of Charles L. Favour and Mrs. Julia Berry have been painted. The summer houses of Dr. John Van Rensselaer of Washington, and Charles F. McClure of Lexington, Mass., are soon to undergo similar treatment.

The schooner Horatio, which was damaged in collision with schooner Gardiner C. Deering Saturday completed repairs in the afternoon and sailed for Wiscasset. The timely presence of the M. Mitchell Davis on the scene prevented a much greater catastrophe, for when she arrived both vessels with "horns locked" were about to drift apart of the schooner Independence.

On board the schooner John Cadwallader, which towed to sea Saturday afternoon after discharging coal at Frisbee's wharf, were also 375 kegs of gun powder, consigned to Portland. There is some speculation as to what would have been the result of a collision between the Cadwallader and the schooner Ned P. Walker, which was here at the same time with fifteen tons of dynamite aboard. At least Peppervell's Cove would have been dug out in quick time.

The sea walls in front of the Hotel Parkfield, and the residence of Capt. Daniel Frisbee, demolished by recent southeasterly gales, have been repaired again. The short at this point seems to bear the brunt of every disturbance.

Several open cars longer than any now in the possession of the Atlantic shore line have recently been purchased at Norfolk, Va., for service the coming summer. It is a question whether they can get around some of the sharpest curves, though investigation to this effect was reported favorably.

The new Congregational parsonage is all framed up and is being boarded. Hiram Tobey, Jr., is having the cellar dug for a new house on the shore of Chauncey's creek, opposite the residence of H. E. Carrier. The garage of Captain T. Burton Hoyt is completed. Francis Raynes is making repairs and improvements to his house at Sea Point. A double deck piazza is being built on the small Gerrish cottage. Ernest B. Grace's new house is boarded up.

Sailed: Schooners Horatio, Wiscasset; John Cadwallader, Portland; Julia L. Mariba, Eastport; Nellie Eaton, Lubec; Oliver Ames, Saco; Annie I. Reuben, Stonington; Mary E. Lynch, Stonington; Forest Maid, Boston; George E. Walcott, Portland.

Telephone lines 297, 315 and 327, which were put out of commission in Friday's gale, were placed in working order again Saturday.

The final connections in the establishment of town water at the Horace Mitchell school were made Saturday.

Eight out of eleven candidates for admission to the Rebekahs at the last meeting were from Kittery Point.

Dirigo Encampment of Kittery will visit the Encampment at Berwick on Friday evening, April 23. Special cars will be provided.

At a recent meeting of the First Christian society it was voted to retain Rev. James A. Donohue with an increase of salary, which is very gratifying to his many friends.

After a passage of many vicissitudes the four-master George E. Walcott entered Saturday on one more leg of her journey. She left Norfolk bound to Boston, was intercepted at Vineyard Haven and ordered to Portsmouth, then went ashore off Cape Cod and next laid 43 hours outside in a gale before she could be towed in here. Saturday she was ordered to Portland to discharge, and left for that port in tow of the tug Portland.

Schooner Julia and Martha, a visitor here Saturday is one of the oldest on the coast. She was built in 1823 at Boothbay, but has been kept in fine condition. She is owned in Calais.

Leon-French of Kittery is substituting as night watchman at the car barn while Judson G. Irish is enjoying a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Goodwin have returned from a three weeks' visit in New York, East Orange, N. J., and Gloucester, Mass.

Charles Clark of Dorchester, Mass., will soon move his family here to take up permanent residence. He will occupy his own cottage opposite the Congregational church.

Harry E. Wakefield is enjoying a short vacation from his duties as conductor on the Atlantic Shore line.

Chester Peirce has entered the employ of George M. Colby.

Morley Shorey of Heniker, N. H., will return here this summer to work in the gypsy moth force. He has been stationed here for the past two years.

Sidney E. Frisbee has been called on the navy yard as electrician.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY AT NEWINGTON.

On Sunday at Newington Frederick William deRochemont celebrated the sixty-eighth anniversary of his birth at his pleasant home there near the shores of Great Bay. On a beautiful Easter day surrounded by his children and grandchildren Mr. deRochemont was the recipient of the congratulations of hosts of his friends and neighbors, many calling during the day to pay their respects to one who during his long and useful life has endeavored himself to the entire community. Though for many years a sufferer from an accident in early life and during much of the severely crippled, he has always taken an active part in the affairs of the town and has often been rewarded with positions of trust and honor within the gift of his fellow townsmen.

Up to a few years ago Mr. deRochemont was a familiar figure in the business life of this city where he has hosts of friends who will join in congratulations of the happy event of yesterday.

The entire family were present at noon at a birthday dinner made happy by an exchange of greetings of good feeling, after which an afternoon of much pleasure was spent around the family circle.

Mr. deRochemont was born in Newington in 1841, in the house now occupied by his brother, Mr. C. M. deRochemont and was the fourth child of the late F. W. and Maria Louisa (deWitt) deRochemont. His entire life has been spent in his native town.

In 1867 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah, daughter of the late J. G. Adams of Newburyport. Five children have been born to bless this union, viz.: Harry J. Adams, F. W. Jr., Millie, wife of A. H. Garland, and Winnie, wife of Ex-Senator E. O. Pinkham. All these children were present yesterday as well as many out of town relatives including Mrs. J. H. and Miss Emma Merrow of Newburyport.

The event of yesterday was made doubly suggestive by the fact that it was also the birthday of the youngest daughter, Mrs. Pinkham, and also that never before has Mr. deRochemont's birthday fallen on an Easter Sunday. All in all it was a happy event and the entire community will successively wish for many happy returns of the day.

WILL HAVE THREE MASSES.

Beginning on Sunday next there will be three masses at the Church of the Immaculate Conception to accommodate the parishioners. The extra service will be at 7 a. m. and the regular masses as usual at 8.30 and 10.30 a. m.

SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Joseph Stupford of Newington quietly observed the sixty-eighth anniversary of his birth on Sunday, April 11.

Would You Enjoy Healthy Old Age?

There is no reason why persons of three score years and over cannot be active, bright and healthy. In old people, no matter how healthy the individual, when old age comes, there is often a tendency to coldness of the extremities, sluggishness of the circulation, incapacity of the liver and constipation. This tendency is really a condition, and one of the many accompaniments of old age, and it is a disease. If there is no remedy, your life will be a struggle. But there is a remedy more positively adapted for this condition than any other, that remedy is Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills. They impart energy to the whole system, invigorate the circulation, increase the flow of digestive juices, thus improving the stomach action and nutrition. They quickly relieve all unpleasant symptoms usually experienced by old people, resulting in torpidity of the liver, constipation, feeble circulation, headaches, etc.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

CAPTAIN AND MRS. GEORGE E. ROBINSON CELEBRATE THEIR THIRTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR MARRIED LIFE AND ENTERTAIN FRIENDS.

Captain and Mrs. George Edward Robinson on Saturday evening observed the thirty-second anniversary of their marriage and in honor of the event entertained a party of twenty-five friends at their pleasant home on May street. Guests were present from Brockton, Lynn, Lawrence, Dover and Kennebunk and they were joyfully entertained by this hospitable couple.

They were married in this city thirty-two years ago Saturday evening and they have lived practically all of their lives here since. After returning from the sea Captain Robinson accepted a position on the police force and he has now been fourteen years in the service of the city.

Saturday evening's programme consisted of whist, followed by vocal and instrumental music and fine supper was served, the menu consisting of lobster and chicken salad, escalloped oysters, rolls, ice cream, cake and fruit and candy.

Captain and Mrs. Robinson received many handsome presents.

It was a late hour before the party broke away, wishing the happy couple all the joys of a great many reunions.

"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best remedy for that often fatal disease—croup. Has been used with success in our family for eight years."—Mrs. J. Whitcomb, Buffalo, N. Y.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

What Is Doing Among the Crew of the Big Sea Fighter

Those who that visited the Wisconsin on Easter, assert that they spent an enjoyable afternoon. The swapping of colored Easter eggs and photos was the most popular pastime. Some pretty good runs were scored. It comes natural for some people to bat 'em out.
Smith, the Boatwain's mate, says that when he puts on his "glad rags" he will beat some of you youngsters time yet. Go to it, Smithy, join in and get the habit, better late than never.
It is to be regretted that marriage licenses can not be obtained through the mail. "Oh you bashful Kid!"
Our friend Sharkey wishes to announce for the benefit of the late arrivals, that he is doing business at the same old stand. All transactions will be confidential. No publicity as with the old method. Having been an instructor for 10 years, he is recognized to be the most successful "Man of the Hour." The thirty-third degree was conferred upon him recently by the "Key dive."
Prize money was paid on Sunday to some of our fast gun crews. It is to be hoped that a greater portion of it will be invested in some reliable hash house.
Overheard on the gun deck: "Some of these would-be lady killers makes me sick."
"Gosh, all hemlock, and she told me her address was 'General Delivery' and that is my address when I am to him. Who do you reckon she be, anyhow?"
Our band used to play "Way Down South in the Land of Cotton" for us. Who knows where they are playing now? They are all on furlough.
Come on Bill and get busy with that Cyclonic Remedy of yours, you will find a ready sale for your dope, until the people get wise.
Brooks and his "Shorts" are still heard about town. Laughing Water is the real thing if any one is looking for a shower.
Our first steamer has a few small repairs to be made.
Our executive officer, Lieutenant Commander B. F. Hutchinson expects to go on leave in a few days.
The band will be in playing form in another week and then it will be "in the Good Old Summer Time." Converses every evening and Sunday afternoon.
The baseball team expects to have a game in the near future.
